DAVID MERRILL.

of the town of Beloit.

FIFTH DISTRICT—Composed of the City of Janesville.

J. W. STOREY.

of Janesville.

Sixth Assembly Nomination.

The republicans of the Beloit assembly district have nominated DAVID MERRILL of the town of Beloit for the assembly. This is a first class nomination. Mr. Merrill can be trusted. He will not fall into the folly of becoming a tool of the copperhead leaders under the silly delusion that he is using them. The loyal electors of that district will be well and truly represented by him.

The Battle Near Chattanooga.

According to a report of the correspondent of the New York Herald, just returned from Chattanooga, the army of Gen. Rosecrans met with a defeat at Chickamauga creek. Certainly it cannot be called a victory for us, but all other testimony, both private and official, represent it as much of a defeat for the enemy as for us. Two corps, Crittenden's and McCook's, behaved badly, on both days, but Thomas, Negley and Granger, recovered what ground was lost by them, and even according to this correspondent's account, the Union forces, under Thomas, held the battle ground Saturday and Sunday nights. The retreat to Rossville and Chattanooga was conducted in safety. If the enemy had not been decried they would have followed and finished the job.

We do not see any jubilant dispatches from the rebel commanders. They acknowledge a terrible loss. Six of their generals were killed, one a major general, and nine were wounded; while on our side we did not lose an officer as high in rank as a general. Our army is in a strong and safe position, with its communications unimpaired, and reinforcements are going forward at a rapid rate. It looks more like a drawn game between the two armies than a defeat for either.

The statement of the Herald correspondent that Burnside is in danger looks plausible enough, but so much time has already elapsed since the battle, that he must have drawn very near to Chattanooga; besides the rebels would hardly risk the detachment of a sufficiently large force from their main body to molest him.

It will doubtless be some time before another battle takes place in that quarter, unless the rebels attack Chattanooga. A great battle damages even a victorious army so much that time is required to put it again in working order.

YOUNG MEN'S STATE CONVENTION.—A call is in circulation in various parts of the state for a mass convention in Milwaukee sometime next month, of the young men of the state who unconditionally sustain the government. This movement is similar to the one in New York, which, in times of peril, has assembled the young men to the aid of the country. A copy of the call may be found at this office, and signatures are requested.

A SQUARE BOLT.—S. D. Littlefield, a democratic member of the legislature from Sheboygan county, in a letter to the Sheboygan Journal, replying to a taunt that the "war democrat" would vote for the republican state ticket if a third ticket should not be nominated, says:

"To this the subscriber 'pleads guilty,' for it is his intention to vote that ticket should the Janesville convention fail to place one in nomination, and such he believes is the calculation of a majority of that portion of the Democratic party whose determination it is to stand by the government by whomsoever it is administered."

Every one of the "fighting McCooks" are out for John Brough, for governor of Ohio. They were all democrats in 1860, but their practical experience in the south has inspired them with the most determinated hostility to the bastard democracy which is represented by such rebels in principle

Are Copperheads Useful?

We sometimes feel indignant at the ap-position made by the copperheads to the war, and inclined to wish them in a place hotter than the north pole. But reflection satisfies us that they are, like other reptiles of the baser sort, made to subserv a purpose in the order of nature. Their present use appears to be to help the negro to his freedom. If they had been patriotic from the beginning of the war, and aided its prosecution with the power they have used against it, the rebels would have been conquered in a year. Then slavery would have remained unharmed, and slaveholders would have still held their human chattels in bondage. But by their clamor the copper-heads have prevented enlistments, obstructed the draft, and encouraged the rebels.

This has prolonged the war, and the longer hostilities continue the more negroes will run away, the more of them will be armed, and the greater the hatred on the part of people towards slavery. If the copperheads succeeded in thwarting the president in procuring men under the present draft, he will be obliged to seek for a negro army with more energy and vigor. All this tends to the freedom of the slave; whereas, if the whole white population of the north were united in sustaining the president in the prosecution of the war, it would be shortened and the negroes kept out of the contest.

Thus it appears to us that the copper-heads are at work for the negro. They may not know it, but are, most probably, instruments in the hands of Providence, used to free the slave by prolonging the war. Their minds may be darkened for a wise purpose, as was that of Pharaoh. They utter their fiendish anathemas against the African, day by day, and work and strive to keep his chains upon him, but without being conscious of it, they are helping him on the road to freedom. They are the negro's best ally, and are blindly working for him, and sacrificing honor, patriotism and good name for his sake. The negroes ought to be exceedingly jolly over the sacrifices the copperheads are making for them, and no doubt they are grinning and dancing in secret to see the sight of thousands of whites men cursing the African while they are doing their best to make him free.

These are the uses of the copperheads, and this is the reason that they are permitted to do their devilish work, that good may come of it.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

STEVENS ALABAMA,

Sept. 19th, 1863.

Messrs. Editors: Three weeks have elapsed since we took our departure from Ft. Donelson for Columbia, Tenn. The weather was favorable but the roads were very dry and dusty, but a watchful eye was directed to every appearance of difficulty with the ambulances who were always on the alert, waiting our coming.—

On the 29th we passed through Waverly, a place of guerrilla resort, but nothing could be seen save a dilapidated town occupied by women and negroes, who pretended to know nothing relative to the locality of any guerrilla bands. Scarcely had the command proceeded a mile from the place when a shot from the bushes wounded Richard Valentine of Co. G.—

He was with the rear guard of mounted men, and carelessly fell behind a short distance. The bushwhacker made his escape.

Considerable excitement prevailed for a time, and searches were made, not entirely without effect, for we found two of the devils skulking about, and brought them to Columbia.

Sunday, the following day, was spent in scouting and foraging. The mounted men came in contact with a band of guerrillas in ambush, at 10 o'clock a. m., killed five and drove off the balance. Two prisoners were afterwards taken. We do not know that our mounted men are desirous of praise but certainly commendation is due them for their energy, which is not easily surpassed. Their commanding officers are Lieuts. Lamoreau, Fish and Hollister.

Valentine was thought dangerous, and was left with a widow, a short distance from camp.

We arrived at Columbia the 31st instant, without any further difficulty, many with blistered feet, but were ordered to move on to Larkinsville, Alabama, via Huntsville.

Col. W. P. Boone, of the 28th Kentucky, was supposed to be the ranking colonel, and consequently took the command. The 28th were mostly mounted, and escaped the hardships of marching over stony and dusty roads, through the hot sun. Colonel Boone's generous feelings toward the citizens caused him to issue stringent orders, which prohibited the boys from procuring what we really needed for subsistence, and kept out a police guard to arrest them when found out of the ranks in pursuit of something. On entering Huntsville, the advance guard were fired upon just as they entered the town, but without serious effect. One man was shot through the hand. They returned the fire and put the guerrillas to flight. One of their men was shot through the head, the balance escaped. We remained in Huntsville one day, then continued our march, and camped at Browns-borough station, where Thomas Allen, of company A, was accidentally shot through the hip. The ball penetrated the flesh and bone until it reached the part below the knee, where it severed it. He will probably survive the wound.

On the 14th instant the command reached Stevens, their supposed place of destination for the present, many worn out with fatigue, but in good health. Our march has been through a country wasted by war for two hundred and fifty-two miles, averaging eighteen miles per day.

When we arrived here we found our able and generous colonel (Wm. P. Lyon) waiting our approach. He was met with a cheering welcome.

How long we may remain here is not definitely settled. We receive mail daily here. Guard duty is heavy, owing to the pending battle in front of Chattanooga.

Deserters from the rebel army throng our camp and appear at the station house in large numbers every day; probably two thousand during the week. O. A. C.

Last Night's Report.

St. Louis, Sept. 23.

A delegation of radical Union men and amputations, appointed by the late state convention to visit Washington for the purpose of procuring a change of military commander in the department of the Missouri, left for the east this evening.

The delegation numbers about seventy, among whom are General Loan and Col.

McClure.

The members of congress from Missouri proceed immediately to Washington.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23.

A dispatch received here about noon, from Quartermaster General Sigler, says that the morning train from Louisville to Nashville was stopped by the burning of the railroad bridge at Nolin, Ky., by rebels. The down train went back to Elizabethtown, and was detained there some hours. Meanwhile a special train with Adams &amp; Co's express, coming north, put out the fire, which enabled the upward train to arrive nearly on their regular time. The damage to the bridge is very slight. The number of guerrillas causing this disturbance is estimated at from four to fourteen.

New York, Sept. 22.

The several boards of enrollment in this city, have examined 8,655 applicants for exemption, and they have partially examined upward of 2,000 claimants for exemption whose cases are laid over for future investigation; 1,534 conscripts have been held for service; 812 have provided substitutes, and 178 have paid the commutation fee amounting in all to the sum of $53,400. It is safe to say that at least two thousand of the men who have been drafted
